Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in relation to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (the FOI Act) in which you requested access to the following:

"My name is [REDACTED] – I am the Research Analyst at [REDACTED] a data analytics organisation partnered with the [REDACTED]"

I am conducting research into fire incidents that occur at commercial properties therefore I am interested in obtaining fire service responses to incidents at addresses at which business operate. However, if you don't have this filter readily available, then we can use all of the given fire incidents within the timeframe.

I wish to request the following information, in electronic format, under the Freedom of Information Act 1991. Information: For the past 2 years of fire incidents in metropolitan South Australia, a list including the individual:

- Date
- Longitude/latitude, or Easting/Northing, or Street Address
- Type of incident

Note: I do not seek personally identifying details – just an outline of the event location."

In accordance with the requirements of Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, details of your FOI application, and the documents to which you are given access, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. A copy of PC045 can be found at <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars>.

A search of files has been conducted and six hundred and sixty two (662) incidents were found and recorded onto one (1) spreadsheet, that are within the scope of your application.

Government of South Australia

In respect of each incident, I have determined as follows:

Document 1

I have determined that the document should be released in full.

Appeal Rights

If you are dissatisfied with this determination, you are entitled to exercise your rights of review and appeal as outlined in the attached documentation.

Should you have any enquiries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me on [REDACTED].

Yours sincerely
